

Mrs. Sullivan Plays Mrs. Taylor for Tennis Trophy

MRS. SULLIVAN PLAYS MRS. TAYLOR TO-DAY

Wins Her Way to Challenge Round in Old Dominion Tennis Tournament by Defeating Miss Colston. Buford Plays Hall for Challenge Privilege.

Spurred by the plaudits of an enthusiastic gallery, survivors in the Old Dominion tennis tournament more than repaid the onlookers by displaying the very best brand of tennis witnessed on any local courts for several years. In splendid condition, dried by the damp-free, though sunless air, the courts at the Country Club offered every inducement to the racket experts to show the best they had in stock.

Mrs. Sullivan made good the hopes of her many friends by defeating Miss Colston in the final round of the women's singles, and has thereby earned the right to challenge Mrs. Saunders, present holder of the cup. Mrs. Sullivan has twice won the trophy and should she be successful this afternoon when she crosses rackets with her opponent at 4 o'clock, she will come into permanent possession of the championship emblem.

Since Mrs. Sullivan is playing in the best form of her entire career on the courts, those who have followed her performance during several seasons predict that she will be the first woman to capture the cup permanently. Regardless of the final outcome, the engagement will surely furnish more than the normal amount of sport for those who will occupy the seats of vantage.

Erskine Buford had little trouble in disposing of McKee Dunn, who, for some unknown reason played behind his usual form. At 3:30 o'clock today Buford will meet Hall, of Lynchburg, for the right to challenge Nat Thornton, the Atlanta expert, who is at present in possession of the cup for men's singles, having captured it in a sensational match last year. Coming before the challenge match in women's singles, the Buford-Hall encounter will whet the appetites of those assembled.

SOCIETY WITNESSES SOME CLEVER RIDING

Deep Run Hunt Members of Country Club Hold Annual Horse Show Before Large Crowd—Two Minor Accidents Prove Sole Marring Feature—Sixteen Horses Take Part.

Fashionable folk, in gala summer attire, gathered on the green of the Country Club of Virginia yesterday afternoon to enjoy a triple bill of pleasures—the tennis matches, the horse show, and the lawn fete, the latter continuing long after the shades of evening had been drawn.

Other sports in progress on the various courts held interested spectators, the annual horse show given by the Deep Run Hunt members of the Country Club of Virginia, attracted far the largest crowd and held attention until the final event was pulled off.

That the horse is ever dear to Virgians, despite the encroachments of the automobile, was evidenced by the large assemblage gathered to witness the events in the horse show. Prominent among the spectators were those of the younger society set, who added life and vivaciousness to the scene. The colors and shades of the gowns worn by the young society women and matrons added a charm and lent an added attractiveness.

Sixteen of the best groomed horses in Richmond participated in the several events, in which they showed well and their performances were pronounced excellent by the judges.

Two accidents of a minor nature occurred during the carrying out of the program. In the mule race, which was run for the enjoyment of the farmers over whose lands the Deep Run Hunt members held their chases during the

Kolehmainen Is Suspended
New York, June 12.—Hannes Kolehmainen, the Finnish runner, was suspended indefinitely by the Amateur Athletic Union to-day for his failure to turn in an expense account for a recent set of games in which he participated.

The runner is now in Duluth, Minn., and was notified this afternoon that he must return to New York immediately and explain why he neglected to turn in this expense account. In order to become eligible for a number of meets in the Western cities this month.

PIRATES REFUSE GIANTS' OFFER

McGraw's Team Piles Up Errors, but Pittsburgh Fails to Take Advantage.

FAIL TO HIT IN PINCH

Four Pitchers Used, and All Are Found for Number of Safeties.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 12.—Though New York tried to hand the Pirates to-day's game they refused to accept, and the Giants won, 5 to 3. Four of the errors charged against the visitors were as good as hits and another one permitted a tally, but when hits were needed the Buccaneers failed. Raps should have been easy outs, went for hits. Viox and Hyatt were the principal offenders. The Pirates base running was puny. The score:

AMERICAN TEAM LEAVES FOR FRONT

New York, June 12.—The American tennis team, which defeated the Australian team in the elimination round for the Davis trophy, sailed on the liner Baltic to-day, in company with the Australian team. The Americans will compete in the British national championships, and then meet the German team in the second challenge round. While the Australians have been eliminated from further competition for the Davis cup, they will take part in the British championships.

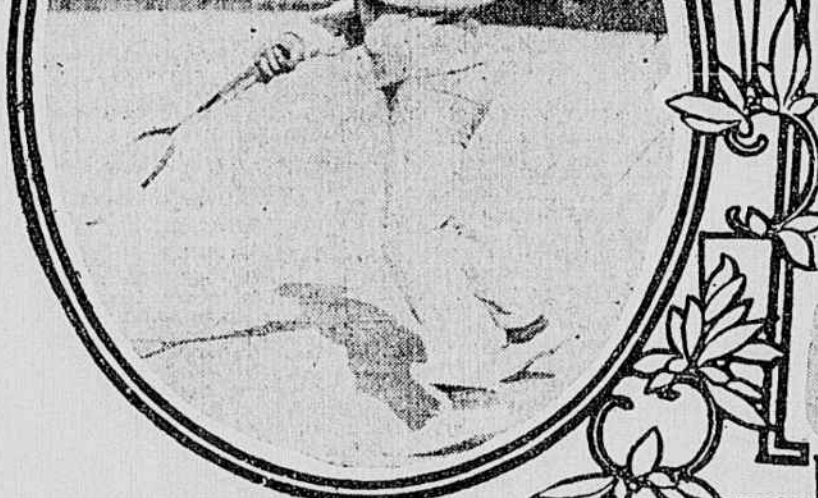

A. B. Jones, one of the Australians, was so ill that he had to be carried aboard the vessel. He has been suffering from an attack of tonsillitis for some time, and played in the international match against the advice of his physician. The Americans meet the Germans on June 25, and the winner of that series would get six months' sentences instead of a year, and all felony charges would be dropped.

OFFER TO PLEAD GUILTY

San Francisco, Cal., June 12.—Five suspended policemen to-day offered to plead guilty to conspiracy with hunchmen if the sentence to be imposed on their fellow officer, Frank Esola, convicted of grand larceny in the same set of cases, would be lightened. It was announced by District Attorney Fickert. The offer has not been accepted. All five officers, while asserting their willingness to plead guilty, maintain their innocence.

In return for pleading guilty the five would get six months' sentences instead of a year, and all felony charges would be dropped.

HARTZELL'S TIMELY CLOUT

His Double in Ninth Drives In Winning Run for Chance's Outfit.

New York, June 12.—Putting up a classy article of ball, the Yanks this afternoon defeated Detroit in a game characterized by the fine work of pitcher Schulz and the errorless fielding of his teammates. Schulz allowed but five hits, and struck out eight men, retiring the side by the strikeout of the Yanks line-up and Hartzell's double in the last half of the ninth, aided by a similar swing by Mikkil, brought over the winning run, although Caldwell was out in the run for Hartzell. FALKENBERG LOSES AGAIN

Philadelphia, June 12.—Falkenberg lost his second game of the season to-day, when the Philadelphia Athletics defeated Cleveland, 6 to 1. Plank pitched great ball, Cleveland getting only five hits. Jackson hit a home run in the third, but the Athletics prevented the Naps from being blanked. Blending relieved Falkenberg and the Athletics, and the locals scored four more when Oldring singled. Collins singled and Jackson fumbled, Oldring piling to third. Baker was passed. Billings hit the bases, scored on McInnis' single. Barry then doubled to left, cleaning the bases. The score:
